

The Punishment Of My People Who Have Forsaken Me, The Living God

“My people don’t want Me, My son. They want the world and its things. That’s why they are so far from Me. They want the world and its things, so they ceased serving Me years ago. They threw down their crosses to go serve the world and its things. Their hearts are far from Me—they don’t pray. They shall enter the Great Tribulation. The Rapture is oh so close, My son. My returning shall scare them all because they are not ready. They left Me a long time ago to go get what they want. And I abandoned them because they abandoned Me, My son. They will not serve Me anymore, though many try to escape the world and its materialism to distant places. But I Am not with them for they have forsaken Me long ago to serve the world and its prosperity. Oh, how they shall wail from the depths of Hell for forsaking Me, the Living God! I have spoken. Amen.”
